UNIVERSITY 2022-2023

PRESIDENT

2023

president's ADDRESS Welcome to the 2023 addition of Anno Domini, Redeemer's annual yearbook! Thank you to Editor-in-chief, Dominique Thornback, and the rest of the yearbook staff for all the work they have put into telling the story of our year together. Hopefully you will return to this book as years pass to cherish memories of Redeemer, the people you have met, and the experiences you have had!

Redeemer's theme this year was, "I am making all things new!" based on Revelation 21:5. In classes, chapels, student activities, varsity athletics, musical performances, laboratories, and so much more I hope that you have been able to see this theme at work as we sought to bring the renewing love of Jesus to all areas of life. It is such a blessing to be part of what God is doing in this world and Redeemer's mission is to prepare students to join in that kingdom work of making things new.

The past year was filled with both hope and challenge. We returned (finally!) to an on-campus, in person experience, opened new facilities, and welcomed more students to Redeemer than ever before. We have met new people, made new friends, started new programs, and launched a new degree.

It was also a year in which we experienced challenges. We grieved together the painful loss of student and student worker, Bekett Noble. We have also had to say farewell to faculty and staff colleagues, many of whom worked closely with students, and some of whom have contributed to Redeemer's mission for many years, as they have felt God calling them to other things.

But as I look back at this past year, I see in it, a reflection of the larger story of Redeemer: the story of an institution committed to impacting the world for Jesus Christ through graduates that will share the love of the cross in all kinds of callings; the story in which God has been faithful and has provided grace for over 40 years. So we give thanks to God for all the things he brought to us this year, both challenging and hopeful.

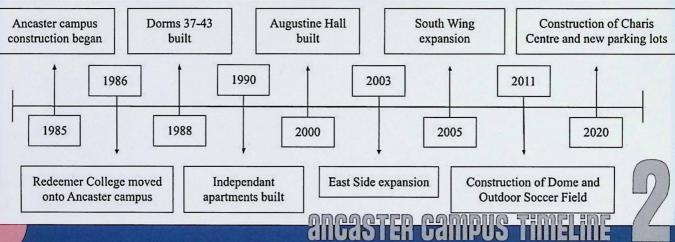

I pray as you journey into wherever the summer and beyond takes you, you will continue to stay close to God through His word and seek His will in your life.

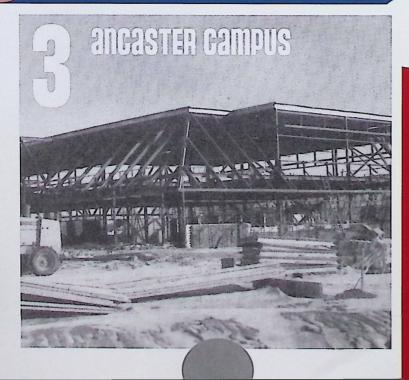

Yours in Christ,

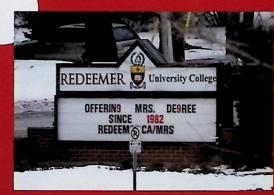

Dr. David Zietsma President 1982-2022

We apologize for the large number of names that are not included in the student pages! Unfortunately, we do not have access to every head shot on file and so a number of names were not able to be included.

As well, we thank you for your patience if there are any spelling or other errors as these pages require a lot of detail and mistakes could be made. We have done our best to make these pages as accurate as we could:)

Thank you all for an amazing year! We have had many ups and downs but Redeemer's community has remained such a blessing all throughout.
